McNamara Reports Saving $1 Billion In Military Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense, Robert S. McNamara said today his cost reduction program clipped $1 billion from Pentagon spending during the fiscal year just ended.

This, McNamara told President Kennedy in a memorandum, was $250 million more than he estimated could be saved a year ago. And he also reported that plans for the current and following fiscal years would bring total savings to almost $4 billion within five years instead of the originally estimated $3 billion.

The savings have been in logistic—supply—costs and “have not in any way been achieved at a sacrifice of national security,” McNamara wrote.

On the contrary, he listed increases in combat capability which he said have been obtained during the past two years. They had been disclosed in various previous announcements.

Among them he mentioned: An increase of 100 per cent in the number of nuclear warheads for strategic warfare forces; a 60 per cent increase in tactical nuclear forces deployed in Western Europe; a 48 per cent increase in the number of combat-ready Army divisions; a 30 per cent expansion in the number of air tactical squadrons, and a 200 per cent increase in special forces for dealing with guerrilla-type threats.

McNamara said the savings resulted from “improvements in operating efficiency,” a point on which he has placed heavy emphasis since he came to the Pentagon from the motor manufacturing industry in 1961.

The defense chief called a late morning news conference to discuss his report to the President with reporters.

One reduction discussed by McNamara involved what he called “buying only what we need.” He said a restudy of the military’s requirements had enabled the department to cancel $700-million worth of procurement which had been planned, by reducing buying for inventories. During fiscal 1963, he said, almost $1.2-billion in excess inventories was redistributed to military users for current consumption or mobilization reserve stocks.

He figured that $12 billion is invested in excess stocks and said a central clearing house, with headquarters at Battle Creek, Mich., will have a complete inventory by the end of this calendar year.

McNamara also had some comments on one of his favorite topics, “goldplating” — procurement of equipment and weapons which otherwise could be bought cheaper but provide the same usefulness. Some examples cited: A specially designed “mechanical mule” for opening and closing the heavy hatches on the Minuteman missile silo cost $555,000 but a commercial hydraulic device costs $80,000; a lift truck for Navy Subroc antisubmarine missiles cost $2,480 under original design, but came down to $385 when an ordinary mechanical lifting device was substituted.

More procurement through contract competition is sound policy, said McNamara, although he noted that in some instances this was complicated by the need for specialized military items. He estimated that in the first 10 months of fiscal 1963 savings from competitive procurement contracts totaled $195 million. He cited this example: A man-pack radio cost $2,278 under noncompetitive price, $843 under competitive price.

Retaining no longer needed real estate has been one of the largest hidden costs in defense operations, McNamara said. Over the past two years, he said, the Pentagon has initiated action at more than 400 locations in the United States and overseas to get rid of or consolidate installations.

Real estate returned to civilian use under this program will total 265,995 acres, McNamara wrote; industrial plants which can be used for commercial work will total 54; personnel being released or assigned to other places because of closing or consolidation will total 53,310; annual operating savings for the past two years have totaled $316 million and annual savings should increase to almost $450 million during the next two years.

Desegregation Ruling Given In S. Carolina

Federal Judge Says Public Parks, Schools Must Be Integrated

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Separate orders ending segregation at the University of South Carolina and in public parks operated by the state of South Carolina were issued Wednesday by U.S. Dist. Judge J. Robert Martin of Greenville.

Martin ordered the all-white university to admit Negro coed Henri Monteith of Columbia enrolled at the beginning of the next semester.

In an accompanying order, Martin ordered the state to admit Negroes to all of its 26 state-operated parks by mid-September.

State officials were undecided about appealing the rulings. State Atty. Gen. Daniel R. McLeod said he would have to read Judge Martin’s entire ruling before making a decision on an appeal.

Miss Monteith, 17, daughter of a Columbia school teacher, attended the College of Notre Dame for Women in Baltimore during the 1962-63 school year. She entered the Baltimore school after her application to the University of South Carolina was rejected last summer.

She would become the second Negro to attend a previously all-white state-supported college in South Carolina. Harvey B. Gantt of Charleston entered Clemson College in early February, also under a court order.

Miss Monteith, expressing gratefulness for the court’s ruling, said she had not decided if she will enter the university in September—when the next full semester begins.

Her mother, Mrs. R. R. Monteith, told newsmen there “are certain things to be decided, including some financial matters,” before Henri enrolls.

The Monteiths have one other child, a 20-year-old son who attends Benedict College, a Baptist school for Negroes in Columbia.

Miss Monteith ranked at the top of her class scholastically when she was graduated in 1962 from St. Francis De Sales High School, a private school at Powhatan, Va.

Judge Martin’s rulings in Miss Monteith’s case and the parks suit accepted both as class actions. This would prohibit any Negro from being denied admission to the parks or the university solely because of race or color.

Martins second order enjoined the State Forestry Commission from discriminating against Negroes in using state parks solely because of their race.

In delaying integration of the parks for 60 days, the judge said: “The court cannot ignore the fact that long standing customs are not changed without planning, education, leadership, and foresight.”

Lincoln Jenkins, Columbia lawyer for the Negro plaintiffs in the suit, said he was generally satisfied with the ruling but would have preferred that the order had called for immediate integration of the parks.

The state now operates 26 state parks, including 19 for white use and seven for use of Negroes.

A recess, instead of the usual final adjournment, would continue the life of the session that began Jan. 7.

Foreign Exchange Students Relax On Visit

The foreign student delegation of 36 left Salem today for Willmette, Ill., capping their brief visit with a spirited talent show representing several nations after a pavilion picnic at the Salem Country Club Wednesday night. After Willmette, they will swing back through Ohio where they will visit New Philadelphia en route to Washington, D. C., to meet President Kennedy.

The students were duly impressed with their 36-hour stay here. Ralph Solveen of near Bonn, Germany, spoke the sentiments of the group, declaring, “We hope very much to come back some day.”

Rev. Harold Winn of the First Friends Church presented a thumbnail history of the Salem Quakers as part of Wednesday’s action-filled program.

The boys and girls from 20 countries went away with a fistful of souvenirs. They included ash trays from Salem China Co.; an Ohio roadmap from AAA; the story of John Alex, a polio victim aided by the Rotary Club; note pad and refills, Salem Tool Co.; pencil, Bliss Co.; pen, Electric Furnace Co.; Quaker Maid rug, historical society; cellophane bag and label, Salem Label Co., and a postcard of State St. from the McCulloch Co.

Tours of the pretzel, popcorn and potato chip plant at Leetonia and the Salem Senior High School, dinner followed by bowling at Timberlanes while rain forced the group indoors, and swimming, boating and other activities at the Country Club rounded out the day.

Management, Unions Agree To JFK’s Plan

OK Delay of Work Rule Change, Strike Notice Until July 29

WASHINGTON (AP) — With a nationwide railroad strike temporarily averted, new machinery devised by President Kennedy for another attempt at settling the four-year-old jobs dispute gets a tune-up today.

This date was to mark the beginning of a nationwide rail walk-out, but a dramatic announcement by Kennedy less than eight hours before the 12:01 a.m. strike deadline set a new timetable.

In a brief report from the White House the President late Wednesday announced the appointment of a special six-man subcommittee of the Labor-Management Advisory Committee to make a new study of the dispute and to report its findings by July 22.

At the same time he announced agreement by the railroads and five operating unions to freeze any work rules changes or strike notice until July 29.

Kennedy said that on July 22 he will send his own recommendations and the special committee’s report to Congress. This would mean Congress would have just one week to come up with legislation to prevent a strike if an agreement is not reached.

Meanwhile, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, named chairman of the new special committee by Kennedy, set up a morning meeting today with representatives of the rail carriers and unions.

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, vice chairman of the committee, also will be on hand. The meeting was called as a planning and organization session and follows fast on the continuous round of labor-management-government meetings here since June 17.

Kennedy’s four other appointees, all of whom gave their consent to the White House Wednesday to serve, were not expected to be present at this inaugural session.

They are Joseph Block, board chairman of Inland Steel, Chicago; George Harrison, AFL-CIO vice president and long-time president of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks; AFL-CIO President George Meany, and Stuart T. Saunders, board chairman of the Norfolk & Western.

Queen of Britain Booed by Leftists

LONDON (AP)—The leftist protest against the state visit of King Paul and Queen Frederika of Greece hit Queen Elizabeth II Wednesday night. For the first time in modern history a British monarch was booed by a British crowd.

Queen Elizabeth was visibly shaken by the torrent of abuse from about 1,500 of the Communists, anarchists and ban-the-bombers who have been demonstrating since the four-day state visit started Tuesday.

The queen drove off unsmiling and alone to Buckingham Palace instead of joining Prince Philip and the rest of the royal party at a government reception.

The demonstrations erupted outside Aldwych Theater where the queen and Prince Philip were hosts to Paul and Frederika at a gala theatrical performance.

As Queen Elizabeth arrived at the theater with King Paul, the demonstrators shouted “siege hell” and “fascist swine” at the Greek monarch. She left the theater alone, however, and this time the boos were directed at her.

Five rows of police held back the screaming demonstrators. They arrested nine of them, including David Hollman, 29, an American who works here as a computer programmer. Hollman was charged with possessing an offensive weapon—a roll of paper containing a dart.

Several minutes before Queen Elizabeth left the theater boos greeted the departing Greek couple. It reached a peak as Prince Philip joined them in a glass-roofed limousine and snapped on the interior light.

The same treatment was given Queen Mother Elizabeth and newly married Princess Alexandra and her husband, Angus Ogilvy, as they entered their cars.

There was some scattered cheering with each outburst, however.

Home secretary Henry Brooke denounced the demonstration.

City Tax Shows Revenue Gain

Up $9,841 For First Six Months

Salem’s city income tax revenue for the first half of this year was $9,841.44 greater than the amount the city collected in income tax money during the first six months of last year.

The one-half of one per cent municipal income tax, in effect now for the third consecutive year, yielded $113,501.61 from Jan. 1 to July 1, 1963, City Auditor Helen Coyne reports.

During the corresponding period of 1962, $103,660.17 was collected by the tax which captures 50 cents for every $100 earned in Salem.

Records in the city auditor’s office reveal that during the first six months of this year: Employers withheld $81,995.87; businesses yielded $16,498.68 in city income tax; and individual city income tax returns amounted to $14,907.06.

One hundred dollars in five-dollar penalties for 1962 delinquencies augmented the city income tax revenue this year.

During the opening half of last year: Employers withheld $74,398.33; businesses yielded $16,332.08; and individual city income tax returns amounted to $12,929.76.

Children Hold Annual Pet Parade At Park

More than 200 persons witnessed the annual pet parade and show presented as part of the city’s summer playground program Wednesday afternoon.

With police leading the way, the parade left Memorial Building about 1:30 p.m. and slowly made its way to the basketball court at Centennial Park by way of E. State St. and Park Drive.

At the park, parents and dozens of children carrying an assortment of pets — ranging in size from goldfish to collies — gathered around the judging circle roped off on the basketball court where the judging began. Rain came as the judging was underway, and consequently the contest was concluded in the shelter of the pavilion.

Those who selected the winners were: Miss Virginia Snyder, girls physical education instructor at Junior High School; Mrs. Raymond Stiver, supervisor of the Salem Senior Citizens Club; and Frank McConnor, president of the Senior Citizens.

Trophies were awarded to the first place winners; ribbons went to the second and third place winners. All children were given candy by the McLain’s Grocery Co.

LEETONIA — The Leetonia School District Board of Education Wednesday night set July 18 at 2 p.m. for the public hearing of the 1964 budget and accepted the resignations of Karl Meinhardt, longtime music instructor, and two other teachers.

Meinhardt, who has been band director and music teacher in Leetonia Schools for eight years, is reportedly moving to Geneva. During his tenure he built the marching and concert bands to highly rated levels. His most current concert band won a top rating at the state competition this Spring. He directs the Salem Saxton Chorus also.

The resignations of Mrs. Theresa Brudery, who will teach in Salem next fall, and Mrs. Joyce Morris McCowin, who is moving to Cincinnati, were also accepted. Mrs. Brudery taught seventh grade at Orchard Hill School for

Sit-Ins Removed As Legislators Try To End Session

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fair housing advocates girded today for new demonstrations as the 105th General Assembly sprinted for the finish line.

Members of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) said they didn't want to wait until 1965 for the legislature to pass a law banning discrimination in real estate transactions.

More than a half-dozen CORE members staged sit-in demonstrations in the governor's office, on the House Floor and in the balcony Wednesday.

Highway patrolmen in plain clothes escorted or carried out both white and Negro demonstrators. Some complained that itching powder was tossed on them. Others later visited the Governor's Mansion.

The demonstration enlivened a two-day windup session of the General Assembly that finished regular work June 28 without passing a fair housing measure.

The legislature Wednesday completed passage of bills to:

Authorize transfer of about two acres of state-owned land to the trade club of Logan as a site for a Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. building. Containing an emergency clause, the act will be effective upon signing by the governor.

Exempt from taxation equipment installed by industry to combat air pollution.

Increase fees for notary public commissions from $1 to $2 for those good in a single county, and from $3 to $5 for those issued to attorneys.

Both Houses adopted a resolution inviting the National Governors' Conference to meet in Cleveland next year. The annual 1963 session will open later this month in Miami Beach, Fla.

Gov. James A. Rhodes, state officials, legislators and representatives of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce plan to present the resolution at the Florida meeting.

Other adopted resolutions called for studies on mental health needs, Blue Cross hospital operations and the sequence of issuing bonds under the $250 million capital improvements bond issue going before voters at the polls next November.

Senators confirmed the appointment of Sharon D. Bresler of Lima as a member of the Water Pollution Control Board for a term ending next Oct. 1 along with 41 earlier appointments.

The Senate kept alive a house-passed bill to increase the markup limit on liquor from 30 to 35 percent. The state now takes a 28 percent markup, but administration spokesmen said they wanted the higher limit as an additional revenue source in event of emergency.

The measure met defeat in the Senate during closing days of the regular working session, but a motion to reconsider was made and left pending.

Another administration-backed bill also ran into trouble. It would authorize the state to take over bank deposits, stock dividends and other funds unclaimed by rightful owners for 10 years or more. They could be reclaimed from the state, with interest, at any time by establishing ownership.

Still others in trouble were a House-passed Sunday closing law that Sen. Ross Pepple, R-Allen, sought to revamp sufficiently for Senate approval and a $1 million Sundry claims measure defeated previously in the Senate but moved into position for reconsideration.

A Senate-House conference acting on a tentative compromise.

a measure to give Cuyahoga each to the counties of Clermont, County two additional Common Lake, Licking, Trumbull Hamilton and Montgomery.

Seven Big Crises Have Been Faced by JFK

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President

Kennedy has had seven big crises

since he entered the White House.

Some he won, some he didn't. Two were with labor and industry.

But they look like just temporary disturbances compared with the others in the tormented fields of race and communism where total solutions are a long way off.

Just nine days from now Kennedy will have been President 2½ years. He had no illusions about the future when he took office

Jan. 20, 1961.

In his inaugural speech that day he said American problems would "not be finished in the first 1,000 days or in the life of his administration.

He was talking mainly about the problems ahead with communism.

Nowhere in that inaugural did he mention the racial problem which would burst over him, if he foresaw it.

It had been gathering force ever since May 17, 1961, the day the Supreme Court said unequal treatment of Negroes is unconstitutional.

Two things happened to Negroes between the time the court spoke and Kennedy took office:

They gained confidence in demanding the treatment they're entitled to and they realized it would be a long time in coming unless they did demand it.

They began demanding: In sit-ins, freedom rides, picketing, entry to previously all-white schools, and mass demonstrations.

They're increasing the pressure. They know no matter how much they win, an end to discrimination in all its forms is still a dream.

Kennedy's first crisis was a disaster: The invasion of Cuba by Cuban rebels with his backing on April 17, 1961.

It was badly planned, even weakly planned. While the world watched, Fidel Castro smashed it. Kennedy did nothing.

It was a lesson to him—and he learned it—to be more careful about involving American prestige and safety in a new adventure.

The second crisis came Aug. 15, 1961. Premier Khrushchev walled in East Berlin to keep East Germans from escaping to the West.

Kennedy did little more than denounce the wall and the spirit behind it. There wasn't much more he could do without risking war with Russia.

He made out better with all the crises that followed. The next was with the American steel industry April 10, 1962.

It raised prices, contrary to Kennedy's wishes and understanding, after a new contract in which steelworkers got some benefits but no pay raise.

Kennedy denounced the steel-makers. It was the power of the presidency against the steel industry. The industry quaked and quit and dropped the price boost.

Luckily for Kennedy, all his crisis didn't happen at once. The fourth one arrived Sept. 30, 1962.

It was a test of wills with Ross Barnett, governor of Mississippi. The will of a governor against the will of the court and the Presidency is a poor match.

Barnett tried to defy a U.S. court order to admit James Meredith, a Negro, into the University of Mississippi.

Kennedy countered with U.S. marshals and federal troops. Two men were killed in a riot against the marshals. But Meredith got in.

This was followed by Kennedy's most hair-raising crisis, Oct. 22, 1962.

After watching Kennedy do nothing in the Cuban and Berlin wall episodes, Khrushchev may have figured him for a soft touch.

He slipped missiles into Cuba.

It might have meant war but Kennedy called his hand and said: Out. Khrushchev waddled off with his missiles.

Alabama's Gov. George C. Wallace, learning nothing from Barnett's debacle, tried his own test of wills and invoked Kennedy's sixth crisis on June 11, 1963.

He defied a U.S. court order to admit two Negroes to the University of Alabama. Kennedy federalized Alabama's National Guardsmen and marched them up to Wallace. Wallace wilted. The Negroes got in.

Kennedy met his seventh and latest crisis Wednesday, just a few hours before the railroad unions were to begin a nationwide strike.

The railroads, upheld by a presidential commission, a presidential board and the Supreme Court, eventually were going to lay off about 40,000 railroad firemen and about 25,000 other rail workers.

The lay-offs were scheduled to start today. The unions said they'd strike at once. Kennedy got both sides to agree to do nothing until at least July 29.

Before then, he said, he would ask congressional action. The only purpose of such action would be to prevent any strike at all.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The federal government has blocked Marcos Perez Jimenez, former Venezuelan dictator, in his bid for release from jail.

U.S. Dist. Judge William A. McRae Jr., said Wednesday he would prepare an order granting a request by the U.S. attorney general's office that Perez Jimenez be kept behind bars.

Perez Jimenez sought his freedom through a state court hearing, contending the government had forfeited jurisdiction by not acting on Venezuela's extradition request within legally stipulated time.

The Need to Draw a Line

There are many Republicans and independents who think it would be interesting to have a 1964 showdown between the Kennedy administration and Sen. Barry Goldwater, the conservative Republican senator from Arizona.

They are intrigued by the idea, because they have wondered since Franklin D. Roosevelt ran for re-election in 1936 what would have happened if there had been less me-too and more me-never among the New Deal and Fair Deal opposition.

It started with Alfred M. Landon, a re-treaded Bull Moose, went through Wendell L. Willkie and Thomas E. Dewey and was still going strong when Dwight D. Eisenhower came into the picture.

It always was done to the funeral chant of the Republican party's Wall Street branch, that a genuine conservative like Ohio's Robert A. Taft couldn't win, despite the fact he could win in Ohio and made himself the most respected man in the Senate by sticking to his colors.

BUT REPUBLICANS and independents who feel this way are not intrigued by signs that Sen. Goldwater is in danger of being claimed by Dixiecrats and extremists with no interest in him other than a possible way to get their foot in the political door. They need him; he doesn't need them.

These are the same people in many cases who buzzed around Sen. Taft, thinking he might be taken into their camp. They were a pain in his political neck.

He read their motives with no need of footnotes. He had no stomach for the extremism they stood for. Politics can make strange bedfellows, but it's the responsibility of anyone who aspires to reach the top to draw a line.

Sen. Goldwater will be needing to draw a line soon, or face the danger of chilling the interest of people genuinely interested in his views.

MANY OF these bona fide admirers took part in a Washington rally the night of Independence Day, along with some of the other kind.

He cannot afford the impression that the other kind have any chance to capture him, unless he wants to destroy his political career.

In Southern states, too, many voters are fed to the teeth with the New Frontier out of the Square Deal out of the New Deal out of Fabian socialism via Lord Keynes. But they are not, by that token, Dixiecrats, states' righters, race-baiters or unreconstructed rebels.

They do not want to swap one brand of extremism for another. They want moderation, reasonable conservatism, prudence, common sense.

If Sen. Goldwater lets himself be captured by reactionaries, he will have made a gross miscalculation about the source of his strength as a political rallying point.

70 Million of Us At Work

Once more, unemployment projections have been knocked out of shape by high school and college students looking for summer jobs.

Even though students were less numerous than they might have been in June—in fact than they were expected to be—they were nearly 40 per cent of the unemployment total.

What this means is that the unemployment total of 4.8 million, which is frighteningly high, is that way only because he figures high, is that way only because the figures used to represent it are frighteningly inaccurate.

Fifty per cent of 4.8 million is 1.92 million. Subtracted from 4.8 million, 1.92 million leaves only 2.88 million unemployed, and of these only one million are believed to be long-term unemployed.

AS SAMUEL LUBELL explained in a recent series of reports covering popular opinion polls on this vital subject, unemployment totals cannot be taken at face value.

Employment totals are no better. It also is reported by the Labor Department that employment during June reached an all-time of 70.3 million. In this staggering total are the same discrepancies and soft spots that turn up in unemployment totals.

Summer jobs are there. Seasonal jobs are included. Jobs held by people who do not need to work are represented.

The whole thing, moreover, is a projection, not an actual report.

IT IS impossible to count all the unemployed and the employed month by month. Samples are taken and imaginary totals worked up.

Whether 70.3 million persons were at work in June, or whether 4.8 million listed as unemployed actually wanted work and would have taken jobs can no more be ascertained as a fact than what television shows Americans were watching — another iffy projection that even Congress finally became alarmed about.

Suffice it to say, employment was good in June, despite the fact nearly 5 million people would have taken jobs if someone had offered them something they could and would do.

Only One Thing Lacking

It is fervently to be hoped that hard words between Negroes on the subject of youthful militancy in the National Association for Advancement of Colored People represent no real difference of opinion.

NAACP should be as wary of putting too much stress on youth as any other organization should be.

It needs all the support it can get. It cannot afford to concentrate on ways to take advantage of the vitality and energy of the young at the expense of rebuffing the judgment, wisdom and experience of the middle-aged and the old.

The temptation to over-depend on the young in difficult situations is always present—and understandably so. They are always willing to try what their elders are reluctant to try because they have tried it before and know what the hazards are.

That's why combat soldiers are young and their generals are old — to combine energy and wisdom.

It will require the wisdom of all concerned, including people of all ages on both sides, to solve the problems of the show-down on civil rights.

Nothing is to be gained and much might be lost by giving young people the idea they have been given responsibility for something that affects everybody.

Lots of kids looked forward to vacation and are now complaining to Mom that they haven't a thing to do.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: If you are smart, you will waste no time picking out shades of gray in the problems you mentioned.

You will do what closed-door minds do—shut out all evidence to the contrary and live happily ever after.

Your Aunt Effie and I have misspent our lives choosing between shades of gray and all we have to show for it is wrinkles. We would have been far better off if we had closed the door on all doubts.

But there's one thing wrong with saying this. It would have been out of character for us. We wouldn't have known how. It would have been contrary to the habit of a lifetime.

We never have seen anything in sharp contrasts of black and white. Our minds always have been clouded by doubts. Our appraisals always have been on the order of six of one and a half dozen of the other.

ABSOLUTISM was offensive to us long before the 20th century style was invented. The difference between right and wrong, true and false, good and bad, sweet and sour never has been easy for us to determine.

As we went along in time and experience only one thing was easy for us to determine. We were absolutely opposed to absolutism.

We were like people who take pride in their tolerance but are intolerant of intolerance. Or you might say we were like the people who believe in free speech for everybody but people who don't believe in free speech.

It's a tough thing to decide.

That's why we are advising you to quit pondering over shades of gray. Your life will be far less complicated and much more rewarding if you will keep your mind closed.

This will make it easy for you to know where you stand on Cuba, the gold drain, farm subsidies, South Viet Nam nuclear explosions equal pay for women, Negro rights modern art, progressive jazz, the latest drink, or the oldest idea.

You can quit chewing your nails. You can quit doing any thinking, because if you choose the right set of doors to keep closed an organization will furnish a diagram for your thinking.

You can let other people do all your thinking for you.

Your aunt and I doubt that you are smart enough to do this. We think you will have doubts about a closed mind. This is the tip-off to what you really are.

There are no doubts in the minds of absolutists. They have everything down pat and keep it that way. If it isn't black, it must be white. They are for it, or they are against it. Like that.

You are hooked for a lifetime of indecision. We feel sorry for you. Never will you have the pure joy of following a party line that may break off and go in a different direction. Forever denied to you will be the privilege of knowing you were never deviated; that you aped the Communists, who take their ideas ready-made from others.

Never can it be your proud boast that never at any time did you have any doubt whatsoever. You will spend your whole life wriggling like a worm in a hot skillet, uncertain which way to move.

We give you our sympathy, nephew, and congratulations. There will be no dull moments, but there won't be much of anything else in a world that feels contempt for people who don't know the difference between black and white, right and wrong, truth and falsehood.

Accept our usual regards for yourself and family.

Auto Industry Boom Signals U.S. Business Gains

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — It's almost axiomatic now that when the automobile business in America is good, all business is good. If this sounds a little like, "What's good for General Motors is good for America," maybe there's something to it after all.

Anyway, 14 per cent of the American labor force is employed directly in the manufacture and sale or indirectly in the supply, servicing and repair of automobiles and trucks. So it is now the No. 1 business barometer, ahead of steel.

"The automobile industry now has so many favorable factors working for it," says Robert J. Eggert, marketing research manager for Ford Motor Co., "that we feel no qualms in envisioning a steady upward sales trend in the years ahead."

"The industry's second straight seven-million sales year back-to-back—1962 and 1963—now appears to be a laydown. While it may be too early to make a specific prediction about 1964, surely we can anticipate that car sales will average more than seven million units a year the next several years."

THE MARKETING RESEARCH that goes into a sweeping settlement of this kind is of interest to all business. It goes into consumer intentions, buying power and credit availability.

Eggert reviewed his research with charts before the U.S. Chamber of Commerce mid-year business outlook session in Washington. It was a revealing forecast of continuing growth.

First is the population factor. Everyone knows it is exploding, without stopping to figure what it means to business.

This year there were a million more teen-agers reaching 16 than ever before. They were the 3.7 million war babies. There will be three million more of them reaching age 16 for the next three years, then the number goes up to 3.7 million again in 1968.

The economic significance of this for the auto industry is that 16 is the driver's license age in most states.

One-third of the young people in the 18 to 24 age group buy a new or used car each year. In the next 10 years there will be over 12 million people in this age group—a 50 per cent increase over the last decade. Here's a "new" market.

University of Michigan's Survey Research Center has found that for every 100 spending units in the 18-24 age group, four buy a new car and 27 buy a used car. For all ages, the figures are 8 per cent buying new cars and 16 per cent buying used cars. So one-third of all auto sales are new cars.

The long-run growth rate of new car sales has been rising about 2.8 per cent a year on the average since 1950. The forecast is that new car sales will rise to 7.5 million by 1965, to 8.6 million by 1970 and 10 million by 1975.

U.S. PER CAPITA disposable income has been rising at an average rate of 1.6 per cent a year, increasing spending power. The average was $1,500 in 1947. It is over $2,000 now. Projections indicate it will be nearly $2,500 by 1975.

Another important factor is that consumer credit is good, for 7 out of 10 car sales are time purchases. But banks and other finance sources have plenty of money now and are ready to lend it. And consumers have enough confidence in the economy to know they will be able to make the last payment on a new car when they sign for the first.

Increased income and credit have meant that the number of families with more than one car has been rising unbelievably. In 1949 there were only 1.5 million two-car families—3 per cent of all family spending units. In 10 million two-car families, over 10 years this nearly doubled to 5.9 per cent of all spending units. But from 1958 to 1963 the number doubled again to 11.3 million—nearly one out of every five spending units.

INTERESTING, TOO, is that there are now 1.2 million three car families—which is nearly as many as the 1.5 million two-car families of 1949.

As to car prices for the future—high volume production will help keep prices down, assuming steady material prices. Also, the average car is better made and lasts longer. Average car life of six years in 1925 has been more than doubled to 14 years in 1960, according to Automobile Manufacturers Assn.

The unsolved problems are building enough highways for the 65 million passenger cars and the 14 million trucks and buses to roll on—and places where they can all be parked.

History Today

Today is Thursday, July 11, the 192nd day of 1963. There are 173 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1790, Congress created the present U.S. Marine Corps under the control of the Navy Department. Marines had first been organized in 1740 when three regiments were recruited in New York to serve under the British flag. The first Marines to serve the colonies were organized in 1775 by the Continental Congress.

On this date: In 1804, Alexander Hamilton was mortally wounded in his duel with Aaron Burr at Weehawen, N.J.

In 1836, the U.S. Treasury required collectors of public revenues to accept only gold and silver—an action which hastened the panic of 1837.

In 1921, the U.S. forbade ships to bring liquor within three miles of the nation's coast.

In 1937 death came to American composer, George Gershwin.

In 1955, Everett Frederic Morrow of New Jersey became the first Negro to serve on the executive staff of President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Ten years ago: U.S. Gen. Alfred Gruenther formally took over as supreme commander of Allied forces in Europe, succeeding Gen. Matthew Ridgway—also of the U.S.

Five years ago: Eight witnesses identified as Chicago racketeers figures invoked the Fifth Amendment during a hearing before a U.S. Senate committee investigating labor racketeering.

Space 'Promotion'

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., was asked by Victor Riesel to discuss whatever he believes to be one of the most exciting developments in our land. He chose outer space. Here are his comments.

By EDWARD M. KENNEDY
United States Senator

When my friend Victor Riesel asked me to write a column for him, I thought I would start with the story of Christopher Columbus. Few people know that before he convinced the Queen Isabella of Spain to send him across the ocean, he tried unsuccessfully to get backing for the trip from the kings of England, France and Portugal.

All three turned him down, not because his idea was wild, but because it was too expensive. Because Spain took the chance, she beat the other nations to the riches of the new world, and dominated Europe for the next 150 years.

I think this is a good lesson to remember when we consider how far and how fast to go in the exploration of outer space. Our ventures into space are going to be every bit as important and exciting as the Voyages of Discovery of the 15th and 16th centuries.

HISTORY is going to record our generation as the one which started it off.

I'm extremely excited about space effort.

I hope to travel to the moon some day.

Before this effort is over, we are going to know about the possibility of life on solar systems other than our own. Long before that, the shape of our nation and our national security is going to be influenced by how well we do in space.

The great rocket scientist, Werner von Braun, was asked in 1958 what the first American spaceman would see when he landed on the moon. His answer was: "A Russian." We have come a long way since 1958, but it is still touch and go as to who will get to the moon first. This is one we can't afford to lose.

The space race also has an impact here on earth—in the form of a great competition for prestige.

LITTLE LIZ

A guy is considered wealthy when he can buy a limousine and take his change in compact cars.

among the nations of the world. This competition is keen and real.

THE WINNER will be not only the country that does more in space, but the country that effectively tells of its achievements.

I think we could do much better in this area. Last year, we spent more than $4 billion on our space effort. Less than one half of 1 per cent of that money was spent telling of our achievements around the world.

When you consider that private corporations reserve at least 5 per cent of their budget for advertising and promotion, you can see there is an imbalance here.

The Russians, on the other hand, squeeze every bit of publicity out of their space program. You can be sure we are going to hear almost as much about Valery and Valentina, the Russian space couple, as we did about Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor.

Edward R. Murrow's United States Information Service is primarily responsible for telling our story in this area.

The USIA is going a good job on a very small budget. When Gordon Cooper was in orbit, the USIA broadcast for 40 hours, in 35 languages to an estimated 50 million people. Exhibits of the flight were set up in village squares throughout Asia and Latin America.

THE USIA would like to be able to send young Americans into foreign countries in "spacemobiles" to talk up the American space program.

It would like to make films about our space program, geared to the particular interests of key countries. I think these projects would be a good investment.

And I have a couple of other suggestions. Why don't we send some of our astronauts on good will trips around the world? The Russians have received tremendous mileage from doing this.

When there were only seven astronauts, I could understand the need for keeping them at home and in training. But now there are 16 in NASA and 35 in the Air Force. Certainly a few could be spared for a short time for such an important mission.

We should also try to train and orbit an astronaut who is a Negro. Most of the people of the world are non-white. This trip would serve to establish a personal identification between them and our space program.

We are engaged in a propaganda war with the Soviets every day of the week, with strategy as carefully prepared and stakes just as high as any battle on land or on sea.

Space affords us a great opportunity. Let us make the most of it.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Table Etiquette

Dear Ann: The other evening my mother-in-law and I attended a civic banquet. At this particular affair there were six women seated at the speaker's table.

After the dessert my mother-in-law, who is up in years, called my attention to the fact that five of the six women at the speaker's table had very poor manners. Why? Because they "painted their faces in public."

For years I have powdered my nose and applied fresh lipstick while at the table. Is this wrong? Sometimes the ladies room is half a block away, or on a different floor. Will you comment please? No doubt others would like to hear your answer.—W.T.L.

Dear W.T.L.: It's in perfectly good taste for a woman to powder her nose and apply lipstick at the table. Hair combing is out, of course, and so is eye-lash curling, eye lining, fingernail repair work, and other little beauty tricks which should be reserved for the boudoir or the ladies room.

For the first time, entomologists have extracted the substance which makes cotton appetizing to boll weevils. # Soviet, Chinese Negotiators Fail To Show for Conference MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet and Chinese negotiators failed to appear today at the hilltop villa where they have been debating their ideological differences.

Normally the two delegations arrive in black limousines shortly before 10 a.m. but today there was no sign of them and no immediate explanation of their failure to appear.

Western observers speculated that the talks, which have been in progress at the villa much of the time since the Chinese arrived last Friday, may have been recessed again.

There was a recess on Tuesday, reportedly because the Chinese were awaiting instructions from Peking following an attack on the Chinese by the Soviet Communist party central committee. Some Russians appeared at the villa Tuesday, but the Chinese did not. Today, neither the Russians nor the Chinese came.

Neither the Chinese embassy nor headquarters of the Soviet Communist party would make any comment about what might be happening today.

But the Soviet news agency Tass announced that Premier Khrushchev and Hungarian Communist party chief Janos Kadar had a conference in the Kremlin this morning. Details were not released, but the Peking-Moscow ideological quarrel was undoubtedly a prime topic of discussion.

Tass said Khrushchev was flanked by Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev, First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan and others.

Western observers speculated that the talks, which have been in progress at the villa much of the time since the Chinese arrived last Friday, may have been recessed again.

There was a recess on Tuesday, reportedly because the Chinese were awaiting instructions from Peking following an attack on the Chinese by the Soviet Communist party central committee. Some Russians appeared at the villa Tuesday, but the Chinese did not. Today, neither the Russians nor the Chinese came.

Neither the Chinese embassy nor headquarters of the Soviet Communist party would make any comment about what might be happening today.

But the Soviet news agency Tass announced that Premier Khrushchev and Hungarian Communist party chief Janos Kadar had a conference in the Kremlin this morning. Details were not released, but the Peking-Moscow ideological quarrel was undoubtedly a prime topic of discussion.

Tass said Khrushchev was flanked by Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev, First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan and others.

There was no mention of party presidium member Mikhail Suslov, who has been heading the Soviet delegation at the talks with the Chinese.

Peking kept up a drumfire of implied criticism of Khrushchev's policies, including his readmission of the Yugoslav Communist into Soviet good graces and his peaceful coexistence policy.

Commenting on Kennedy, the Kwangming Daily said, "The Chinese and Korean people, who have had a trial of strength with U.S. imperialism for over three years on the Korean battlefield, are well aware that the blood-thirsty nature of the U.S. aggressors will never change."

Rail Feud

Railroad

A spokesman for the rail unions said that two of the five top rail union officers definitely would be present. They are Charles Luna, president of the AFL-CIO Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and Louis J. Wagner, president of the independent Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen.

The heads of the three other rail unions left Washington late Wednesday. They are to be represented by top aides at today's meeting.

Kennedy's appointment of the special study committee, the climax of a day of intense activity in the White House, was his second surprise announcement in the rail dispute in two days.

On Tuesday the President had recommended arbitration of the work rules dispute by Supreme Court Justice Arthur J. Goldberg, a former labor lawyer and Kennedy's former secretary of labor. Union rejection of the proposal — the carriers accepted — touched off Wednesday's activity in the executive mansion.

Declaring they had no objections to Goldberg — the unions told the President at 10 a.m. they couldn't go for the principle of binding arbitration.

Kennedy did not indicate what kind of legislation he might ask as a result of the proposed study — if no agreement is reached. A Capitol Hill source said, however, the President would propose an amendment to the Railway Labor Act providing for compulsory arbitration.

J. E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the railroads, said it is the carriers understanding that the dispute will be settled one way or the other by July 29. He said he did not think further collective bargaining is contemplated.

Luna and Wagner held a news conference in which they said they were glad they could accept Kennedy's proposal. They said they were hopeful a complete restudy of the facts in the dispute would bring out more sentiment in their favor.

Luna commented that the new committee will only review the situation. He said the unions would be agreeable to renew negotiations with the carriers at any time.

On Capitol Hill, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said GOP members of Congress would fight vigorously any move for federal seizure of railroads or compulsory arbitration.

Other congressional leaders also made it clear they hope they will not have to deal with the problem of legislating a solution to the railroad controversy.

The work rule changes the carriers want to institute would eliminate some 65,000 jobs, about 40,000 of them firemen's. The unions contend the jobs are necessary to ensure safe operations.

Fair Board Plans Events For Women

LISBON — Special programs for ladies will be held Friday, Saturday and Monday at the 118th anniversary Columbiana County Fair Aug. 22-26, according to arrangements made Wednesday evening at a regular meeting of the fair board.

Mrs. Fred Schoeni, chairman of the fair board wives, and Mrs. Dixie Saltsman, assistant county extension agent in home economics have set up programs for each day.

The board's next meeting will be July 24 at 8 p.m. at the offices at the fairgrounds.

Girls have been cherishing dolls, and boys toy soldiers, since 3000 B.C.

Salem Township Budget Is Adopted

The Salem Township Board of Trustees adopted a 1964 budget of some $39,000 Wednesday night at a public hearing. Only trustees Ed Wilhelm, Vernon Walters and Lawrence Kibler and clerk Frank Painter were present.

The trustees agreed to widen a three-fourth mile stretch of Yates Rd., presently a narrow dirt road. The road will be widened to about 24 feet, Painter said, from Highland Church west and north.

Bills totaling more than $4,000 were approved.

Queen Frederika by contrast appeared cheerful. She waved her handkerchief to boos and cheers alike.

In other action, the board approved for submission to the State Department of Education a required annual report of operating costs of buses. The costs, including salaries of six bus drivers, maintenance, fuel and other expenses, totaled $13,941 for the 1962-63 year for the fleet of six regular buses and one spare van.

Present for the board's regular session were Dr. Paul Conrad, president; Wayne Holloway, vice-president; Dr. Guy Nicolette, Joe Woods, Dr. Paul Beaver, clerk Gladys Gause and superintendent Victor Wood.

Reporters Given Preview of Fair

"More to See in Sixty-Three" was revealed as the theme of the 117th annual Canfield Fair to be held Aug. 29 through Sept. 2 when 150 members of the press, radio and television stations were guests at the annual "kick-off" dinner at the Fairgrounds Wednesday.

Homer Schaeffer, president of the board of directors, spoke about this year's event and introduced George S. Bishop, director since 1929, who gave a brief history of the fair. Howard A. Ley, publicity chairman, told of the problems involved in publicizing the event.

Musical selections were given by the choir of the Locust Grove Baptist Church under the direction of Mrs. Ruby Marshall. The group was then taken on a hayride tour of the grounds.

which he was using gauze compresses at a Toledo motel last weekend. They quoted Birns as telling a chambermaid: "I was trying to be a kid on the Fourth of July. I lit a firecracker and got burned."

(2) Why did he apparently abandon the car he drove to Toledo, where he spent several days at the Town House Motel, and why did he leave there Tuesday without taking his luggage or clothing?

Dr. Lawrence Raymond of Toledo early today told a reporter he had treated Birns for the hand injury. He said Birns had called him to the motel Saturday and told him the hand was mangled in a car door. The doctor said he was the physician for the motel.

The 33-year-old Gold, twice convicted on fraud charges, had left with his wife an affidavit with instructions to turn it over to authorities if he met with foul play. Mrs. Gold has been given police protection after expressing fears for her life.

The affidavit said stolen Canadian bonds Gold posted as collateral for loans at two Cleveland banks were given to him as security on a loan by Birns.

Gold's body was found stuffed in the trunk of his car in suburban Solon Monday night. The bones in his hands had been broken, he had been strangled and three shots were fired into his head and one into his back.

Gold had been convicted of using $55,000 worth of stolen bonds for bank loans in one of two trials in his financial dealings.

As of Wednesday night, no warrant for Birns' arrest had been issued. Police in Toledo dropped out of the case, although the FBI continued searching the Toledo area. It wants to question Birns about the stolen bonds.

Lt. Carl Delau of the Homicide Division of the Cleveland Detective Bureau said a tipster had given information that Birns was seen in an automobile headed east from Toledo Wednesday night on the Ohio Turnpike.

Officers of County Granges Hold Session

Twenty-seven persons attended the county officers meeting of Columbiana county granges at Mile Branch grange Tuesday evening, with Charles L. Morlan, county deputy master, in charge.

The evening was spent in reading the unwritten work, with host grange opening and closing the meeting. The next meeting will be at the Liverpool grange on Sept. 9.

FILE UNITY PROPOSAL

Unity Township trustees today certified a resolution to the county election board asking a vote at the Nov. 5 general election on a new 1-mill levy for fire protection. The levy would be in effect five years.

R. Eugene Yohst has filed with the board for re-election to the board of public affairs in Salineville.

Canadian mines produce more than three-fourths of the world's supply of nickel, but the nation exports more than 95 per cent of its production.

Petition Filed In Warren Robbery

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Cleveland man who robbed a Warren bank of $71,000 and was sentenced to 25 years in prison has filed a petition by mail asking that his term be reduced to 20 years.

The petition of Julius A. Petro was received Wednesday from the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., where he is confined. Petro and Joseph J. Sanzo, also of Cleveland, were convicted in December 1952 of robbing the Union Savings and Trust Co. on Aug. 14, 1952. Sanzo is serving a 15-year term.

Petro asserts the law provides a 25-year term only where there are charges of assault or placing lives in jeopardy, and that his case involved only obtaining money by force and fear. A 29-year sentence for that charge, with time off for good behavior, would entitle him to release now, he said.

Matter of Fact

The Imperial Valley of South-eastern California has a hot desert climate similar to that of the Sahara. All of the valley is below sea level. Since the completion of Hoover Dam, the valley is producing beef cattle, sheep, vegetables, fiber crops and dairy products.

The terrain of Idaho is marked by startling diversity. Almost all physical features typical of the United States, except seacoast, can be found somewhere in the state. There are broad valleys and rugged mountains, arid plains and green prairies, deserts and humid forests.

Mrs. Oana Among Women Attending JFK Conference

Mrs. Mike Oana of Salem, national president of the Amvets Auxiliary, was one of 300 women who participated in a gathering called by President Kennedy Tuesday at the White House.

Topic of discussion was the civil rights bill. Also participating in the program were Vice President Johnson and Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy.

The President stressed three points to solving the current racial crisis: First, organize committees to get all children in school and seek the help of the community, teachers and mayors; second, encourage all organizations and all citizens to bring the Negro active in the community; and third, set up leadership training courses in community affairs and include the Negro.

Following the discussion, President Kennedy greeted the women in the rose garden and presented such notable figures as Secretary of the Treasury Dillon, Secretary of State Rusk, Secretary of Labor Wirth, Assistant Atty. Gen. Burke Marshall and Mrs. Esther Peterson assistant secretary of Labor.

In an official capacity, Mrs. Oana presented to the President a life membership for Mrs. Kennedy in the Amvets Auxiliary.

Mrs. Oana this week returned from attending the Michigan Amvets and Auxiliary state department convention at Grand Rapids and official visits to Tacoma and Seattle, Wash., and Montana.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Some Germs Are Helpful, Tests Prove

The newborn baby infant is practically free from germs, but he makes their acquaintance very rapidly.

Dr. Brandstadt

The staphylococcus or pus germ, especially, has long been the bane of hospital nurseries. Elaborate steps are taken in all well-run hospitals to prevent the infant from type of infection. Such infections do, however, occasionally occur, and doctors are ever on the alert to combat them.

Now from the Cornell Medical Center comes a new weapon. It is based on the knowledge that all germs are not harmful — not even all staphylococci. The first problem was to find a harmless strain of this organism.

In four such outbreaks they tried purposely introducing their harmless strain into the nose and navel of half of the newborn infants. The other half received the same routine care but no S502A. Of the 108 infants who were given S502A only 5 picked up the harmful strain (Staphylococcus 80-81). When the rest of the infants who had not been given S502A were "infected" with this harmless strain the epidemic was quickly brought under control.

TO BETTER UNDERSTAND why this worked let us assume for the moment that strain 80-81 was a fine quality of blue grass and that strain 502A was crabgrass. Now if you purposely sowed crabgrass seed all over your lawn where the blue grass was just starting to come up, what would you get? A beautiful crop of crabgrass would choke out your blue grass. That is exactly what happened in the nursery.

The investigators warned that the usual steps taken to prevent harmful staphylococcal infections must not be relaxed, and they are not yet ready to advocate planting S502A in all infants at birth. Until they know more about it they will use it only to check epidemics.

But doctors believe that the day may come when S502A or some similar strain may be used to give the newborn the protection he needs to ward off harmful staphylococcal infections and thus fight fire with fire.

Q—My 16-month-old son eats cigarettes every chance he gets. Why does he do this? Is something missing from his diet? A—At 16 months a child will put anything that he can get hold of into his mouth. Since eating cigarettes can do him no good and may make him sick why not make a greater effort to keep them out of his reach at all times? And while you're about it, keep aspirin tablets, moth balls and anything else that would harm him out of his reach. These are some of the responsibilities that you cannot dodge when an infant's health is at stake.

TOP STORY — Traditionally, when the highest point of the construction of a building is reached, an evergreen tree is placed atop the structure. Here, members of the gas industry place a tree of gas pipe, fittings and valves atop the Festival of Gas pavilion, going up at the New York World's Fair site.

Diet Time Again

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK AP)—What is the most repulsive sentence in the English language?

There is no doubt about the answer. It is, as every person who ever went on a diet knows, this one: "All you need to do is to push yourself away from the table." Not long ago 12 people in a single day patted me on the stomach oh, how I hate people who do that! and said: "Getting bigger, ain't it?"

Well you expect insulting remarks like that from needling friends. But as four of these lun-my-patters were total strangers I decided maybe it was time to go on one of my four-times-a-year diet again. So I did. But not with much hope.

It's an odd thing about this world. If you admit you're trying to lose weight, everybody gets into the act. "All you need to do is to push yourself away from the table," you are told. What utter, utter nonsense! At many a dinner, I've pushed myself away from the table 20 or 30 times until my arms were so weak I barely had strength to pull my chair back and finish the meal. All this exercise did was to build up my appetite.

tion diet, the boiled-egg-and-steak diet, the cold-champagne-and-hot-avocado-and-sauerkraut diet. It seems to me I have survived every diet known to man—animal mineral and vegetable. My theory is that it isn't just what you eat that makes you fat. When the molecules encounter a kind-hearted, good-natured, generous person, they happily attach themselves to him like barnacles to a ship layer by layer, until he becomes fat.

Cherry Hill Posts First Win In Junior Loop Action

Moose Beats Jaycees 33-7

Petrucchi, Hunts Win Class G Contests

In the biggest upset this season in Class G, Cherry Hill picked up its first win by knocking off Merchants Vending 16-13 in a contest at Reilly Field.

In other Salem Junior Baseball action, Moose Lodge beat Jaycees 33-7 at Buckeye.

Petrucchi's kept right on rolling in the Class G loop triming Knights of Columbus 5-1, at Memorial West, and Hunts Industrial Union kept in contention for the league lead edging third place National Dry Cleaners 10-8 at Centennial South.

CHERRY HILL broke a 13-13 tie in the bottom of the fifth with a three run rally on two errors, a double by John Mehno and a triple by Bernie Cibula.

The winners built a 13-3 lead early in the contest, then watched as Merchants' Vending stormed from behind with a 10 run thrust to tie it up.

Two hit batters, three errors, four walks and a single by Bill Henceroth gave the losers the 10 markers. The losers outlived Cherry Hill 6-5.

The win was the first in 12 starts for Cherry Hill. Cibula paced the winners with two triples. Henceroth had a triple and single.

MOOSE chalked up runs in every inning but the fifth. The winners collected 22 hits. Fred Safered, who homered in the fourth, Charles Baker and Jeff Krebs each had four hits.

A fast triple play by the Jaycees shutout Moose in the fifth.

Petrucchi's (13-2) broke a 1-1 tie in the third with a three run rally on a pair of walks, an error and singles by Scott Cranmer and Dan Hopley.

Matt Tomsha and Tom Lantz were the only batters to get hits for the K of C's.

Hunt's Industrial Union rallied for three runs in the bottom of the seventh as Jeff Zimmerman, Kenny Kenst and Bud Hillbrand hit singles and Bill Helmick belted a double.

Harry Ewing, Wally Simpson and Bob Richards each had two hits to pace National Dry Cleaners (9-5). Rick Boyle clouted a pair of doubles and a single for the winners who lead the loop with an 11-3 mark.

Nicklaus Cards 71; 148 Is Cut Off Today

Palmer Balloons to 76; 2 Pros Fire 67s To Lead British Open

By TOM REEDY
LYTHAM ST. ANNE'S England (AP)—Arnold Palmer was confronted today with one of the biggest tasks he ever has faced in golf, catching up with a nine-shot deficit after the first round of the British Open championship.

Palmer, in search of his third straight British title, unloaded a miserable 76 Wednesday over the 6,757 yard par 70 Royal Lytham and St. Anne's links and there were those who said he was "out of it."

Leading the pack were Phil Rodgers, ex-Marine from La Jolla, Cal. and Australia's Peter Thomson, four times British Open king, at 67.

At 68 were Tom Haliburton of England and left-hander Bob Charles of New Zealand. And at 69 were Kel Nagle, of Australia, the 1960 centenary open king, and Spain's Ramon Sota.

Jack Nicklaus, U.S. Masters' champion, was in a comfortable spot at 71.

Today's 18 holes will reduce the field of 120 to the low 45. Best estimates were that 148 would do the trick. That meant Palmer needed a 72 or better to be certain for the final 36 holes Friday.

Palmer conceded the job ahead of him was tough, even for a 2 to 1 favorite no one wants really to bet against.

He said he could not recall a tournament he won with a start of 76.

Palmer wasn't walking much about his round Wednesday. He said he just couldn't hit a tee shot straight.

"I drove poorly. That's where I lost it all," he said simply.

Dodgers Hand Mets 11th Loss In Row 1-0; Colts Blank Bucs; Cincy Rolls

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
About those Los Angeles Dodgers pitchers.

Man, they give up runs the way Jack Benny parts with a buck.

Johnny Podres pulled the Scrooge act Wednesday night, doling out three miserly singles and striking out 11 as the Dodgers cashed in another victory by handing New York's poverty-stricken Mets their 11th successive loss, 1-0.

The Dodgers now have won eight of their last nine in climbing from fourth place to a rich five-game lead in the National League. In five of those eight victories, Los Angeles pitchers have posted shutouts and in two others they've held the opposition to a single run.

Podres, the 30-year-old left-hander, has banked three victories in the Dodgers' latest surge, allowing a grand total of one run and 10 hits. His squeaker over the Mets decided on John Roseboro's eighth-inning homer, was his second straight by a 1-0 score and his fourth shutout.

While the Dodgers were edging the Mets, the Philadelphia Phillies dropped second-place San Francisco five games behind, capitalizing on Giant misplays in a 10-2 romp.

Also in the NL—Joey Jay became a winner for the first time in over a month, with strong relief help in the final inning, as the Cincinnati Reds trimmed the Chicago Cubs 3-1; and Houston's Ken Johnson and Hal Woodeshick combined for a five-hit 2-0 shutout of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Dick Stuart's slugging powered the Boston Red Sox over Minnesota 7-4 in 10 innings in the only American League game played. The hard-hitting first baseman exploded out of a home run slump with two on in the 10th.

Podres, 7-6, extended his scoreless string to 24 innings in a duel with the Mets' Carl Willey who checked the Dodgers on four singles until Roseboro rifled one into the seats with one out in the eighth.

The Phils got three runs in the fifth inning for a 4-2 lead over the Giants with the help of Chuck Hiller's error, then added three unearned runs in the sixth after Willie McCovey dropped a fly for a two-base misplay. They made it a rout with another three-run flurry against reliever Billy Hoelt in the seventh, winding up with the fifth victory in their last six games.

Al Worthington and Bill Henry stifled a bases-loaded Cub threat in the ninth, saving Jay's first victory since June 6. The big right-hander now has a 4-12 mark.

The Reds netted all three of their runs in the first off Glen Hobbie, with Marty Keough knocking in two with a triple and scoring on a single by John Edwards.

Woodeshick relieved Johnson with the bases full in the eighth inning at Pittsburgh, retired the side by striking out Smokey Burgess, then held off the Pirates in the ninth. The Colts managed only six hits off Bob Friend, but bunched three of them in the first for both their runs.

Stuart, who hadn't homered in 21 games and hadn't driven in a run in 11, tagged his 18th of the season with one on in the fourth inning as the Red Sox built up a 4-0 lead against southpaw Jim Kaat of the Twins. Then, facing Minnesota relief star Bill Dailey in the 10th after Dick Williams' pinch double and a walk, Stuart hit No. 19.

Boston's bullpen ace, Dick Radatz, raised his record to 3-1 with three innings of one-hit relief.

Parker Chevrolet took a 4-0 lead in the initial frame on two walks an error, a sacrifice and singles by Wayne Hahn, Jim Harrigan, Bud Rottenborn and Joe Carmelo.

Salem Legion Whips Lisbon 7-2 For 10th

Salem's powerful Legion baseball team scored seven runs in the middle innings and went on to knock off the Lisbon Post 7-2 at Centennial Park Wednesday.

Coach Johnny Herman's aggregation chalked up its 10th straight loop victory. The Charles H. Carey Post 56 unit has only lost once during the campaign.

McPherson led the losers with two hits. Barrett had a pair of hits for Salem.

Blom Eyes 3rd Amateur Title

63 Golfers Start Match Play Today

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
ELYRIA, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's classic play-for-fun golfers went after the state's 57th amateur championship today as four days of match play started over the Elyria Country Club's tree-infested layout.

Tony Blom, 35-year-old Cincinnati steel salesman, was seeking a third title to add to his 1959 and 1962 triumphs, but some stalwart swingers stood in his way.

Among them was James Brown, 19, of Martins Ferry, Ohio State basketball player and No. 1 on Coach Bob Kepler's golf team. Brown led 63 qualifiers through two days of match play that weren't required of Blom, the defending champion.

A field of 233 started the two-day, 36-hole grind, and when it was over, Brown had the medal wrapped up with a 145 total—one over par for the 6,326-yard course. That gave him a two-stroke edge over Dick Allinson, 29, of Columbus, a public links player employed at the Government Supply Center. Allinson is a transplanted Texan making his first start in the tournament.

Tom Weiskopf, 20, of Bedford, public links champion the last two years; Alex Antonio Jr., 19, of Hubbard, winner of the state high school crown in 1961 and 1962, and Joe Sugar Jr. and attorney Craig Wright, both of Columbus were next with 148.

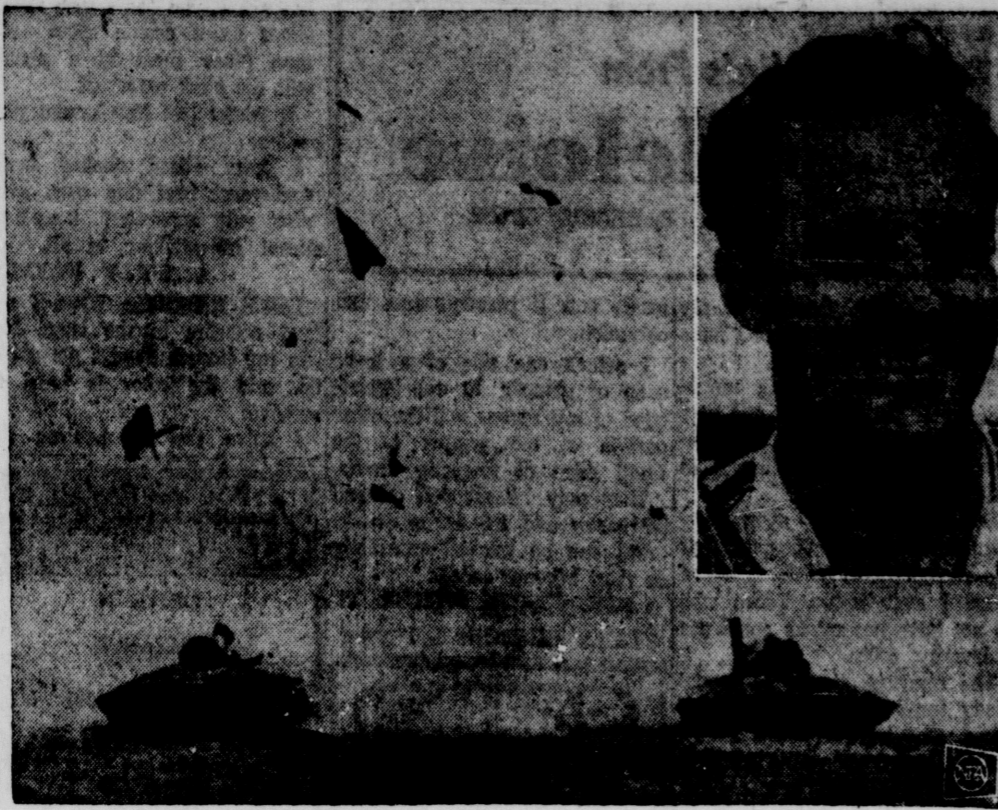

Qualifying scores soared to 157. A dozen tied at that figure and staged a sudden-death playoff for the nine positions open in today's double match-play round. Among the survivors of the playoff were Frank Truitt, Ohio State's assistant basketball coach; Steve Phipps of Youngstown, the 1962 pre-seniors champion; and Dr. Dick Widdoes of Sandusky, former Ohio State griddle.

Today's play will slice the field to 16, and two more rounds Friday will cut it to four. Saturday's semifinals and Sunday's championship will be over the 36-hole route.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Re-ses have been sold in the district.

cent fishing reports have not been too encouraging for the average angler but those fishermen who go looking for the big muskies seem to be having near record-breaking luck.

Fred E. Shope of Greenfield, who makes a habit of being in the Ohio Muskie Club, has a 1963 membership. Shope landed a 47½-inch, 25½-pound muskie June 24 while fishing in Rocky Fork Lake. He was using a bomber lure.

Shope is the man who took two muskies within 45 minutes during a rain storm the latter part of May. Those muskies just failed to make regular membership although they attained honorable mention status.

Cass Drake, another perennial Muskie member from Steubenville, took a 16-pound, 42-inch muskie from Piedmont Lake May 30. He already has a 44-inch, 21¾-pound muskie this year.

Yanks' Maris Is Scheduled For Operation

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Maris, the other half of New York's famed M-and-M slugging combination, has joined Mickey Mantle on the Yankee list of the missing.

Maris, who assumed the Yankee team leadership when Mantle was sidelined with a broken foot June 5, will undergo surgery at New York's Lenox Hill Hospital Friday for a rectal fissure.

"From what I hear from New York," Yankee Manager Ralph Houk said in Los Angeles, "I expect him to be out a week to 10 days."

Mantle, who won the American League's Most Valuable Player award for the third time last season, rejoined the Yankees in Los Angeles today, but is not expected to be ready to play for another week or two.

"I'll play him as soon as he's ready," Houk said, "I don't know when that will be."

Maris, the Yanks' right fielder, was scheduled for surgery after an examination by the Yankee team physician Dr. Sidney Gaynor and a specialist, Dr. John Donaldson, who will perform the operation.

The slugging, green-eyed outfielder, missed the Yankees' doubleheader in Cleveland Sunday with what was thought at the time to be a recurrence of a back ailment that had sidelined him earlier this season.

He flew to his home in Independence, Mo., for the All-Star game break, but returned to New York Wednesday after a telephone consultation with Dr. Gaynor.

Maris, a two-time MVP who hit a record 61 homers in 1961, has 19 home runs, 42 runs batted in and a .294 batting average—his highest in the majors—so far this season.

City Softball All-Stars Set For Action

Henry Miller, who is the leading hitter in the Class AA division of the City Softball League, has been added to the all-star roster for tonight's game against Alliance Chuck's Inn at 7:45 p.m.

The Class A stars will take on Alliance VFW, which has a 6-3 record, to start the action at 6 p.m. at Kelley Field.

Akron, with a 9-5 mark, will take on Hubbard in a girls game at 9 p.m.

Local girls competing with the Akron unit will be starters Janet Reeder of Hanoverton, who is batting .500, and Diana Linder of Salem. Karen Pauline also of Salem will be in uniform.

The Akron squad, which has split with Hubbard in a double-header earlier this season, is playing their first contest since competing in a tourney at Indianapolis.

The girls, because of inclement weather had to participate in a tilt that got underway at 3 a.m.

Many of the top city "A" and "AA" stars will be playing in the annual classic tonight. Price of admission for the program will be 50 cents.

Browns' Grid Rookies Start Training Today

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—About two dozen Cleveland Browns rookies begin football workouts at Hiram College today, hopeful that the weekend tryouts will win them a chance to return for the regular training camp opening July 2.

Although the player limit has been raised to 37, this additional opportunity for first-year men was Browns added two National Football League veterans.

Andy Cvercho, 25, 243-pound offensive guard who once starred at nearby Campbell High School, was obtained from Dallas for a future draft choice. Defensive halfback Don Mullins went on the Browns' roster earlier Wednesday via a draft-choice swap with the Chicago Bears.

Tribe Begins 11-Day Road Trip With A's

KANSAS CITY AP) — Dick Donovan will try to get the Cleveland Indians away to a fast start after the All-Star game break when he pitches against the Athletics tonight as the Tribe starts an 11-day road trip.

Donovan 6-5 will face Dave After Kansas City, the Indians move on to Minnesota, Los Angeles and New York.

If Tribe catcher Joe Azcue plays in any of the three-game series against the Athletics, it will be the first time he has faced his old teammates. He was on the A's roster when the teams last played, on May 15. In that two-game series, Haywood Sullivan caught.

Azcue subsequently was sent to the minors, and the Indians got him in a trade. Since being with Cleveland, Azcue has been a titan, both with the bat and behind the plate.

DOWN on the FARM

Dairy Day Event Aug. 9

Dairy Day at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station has been set for Aug. 9. This will be the 38th annual event, with programs for every member of the family. Morning sessions begin at 10 a.m., daylight saving time.

For dairymen, the program will include a tour of dairy research and practices. Morning sessions are scheduled on herd mates in sire selection, early bred heifer research, bloat, use of high dry matter silage, feed intake and body size, and milk quality control on the farm.

In the afternoon, dairymen will take part in an intensive program on sire selection, including past, present and potential. They will discuss proving sires in many herds as opposed to using sires having a one-herd proof.

For the women attending, a program on beautifying the home grounds with flowers and woody plants has been planned for the morning session. In the afternoon, ladies will be invited to tour Station gardens.

The youth or Junior program will include a judging contest for dairy cattle in the morning and an afternoon session on the International Farm Youth Exchange program. Registration for the judging contest begins at 9:45 a.m., daylight saving time for both 4-H club members and FFA youths. Russell W. Smith, 4-H supervisor and chairman of the Ohio Dairyman's Association youth committee, will be in charge.

During the noon hour, George Jackson, Mt. Gilead, president of the Ohio Dairyman's Association, will preside. Dr. Roy M. Kottman, director of the Station, will welcome dairymen and their families, and Associate Director W. E. Krauss will discuss the image of Dairy Day. Ohio's dairy princess will be introduced by Earl Poling of the Ohio ADA and Ohio Farmer Editor Earl McMunn will make awards to youth who are the winning dairy judges.

Dairy Day program chairman is Dr. L. O. Gilmore, associate science department. The event is chairman of the Station and the Ohio Dairyman's Association. Ohioans to Visit Oklahoma

About 70 Ohio cattlemen will visit Oklahoma's cattle country next month, says James H. Warner, Ohio State University Extension beef cattle specialist.

They will leave Columbus Aug. 11 for an 8-day tour which will take them to ranches, feedlots, and livestock markets. The tour is sponsored by the Ohio Cattle Feeders Association.

STAFF OF LIFE — Wilson Weaver averaged approximately 68 bushels of wheat per acre from a government measured 4-acre field. The variety was Dual and the test weight was 62½ pounds per bushel. Weaver prepared his 4-acre Columbia, Mo., plot for alfalfa, but was afraid of grasshopper infestation and decided to plant wheat instead. The acreage received $140 worth of plant foods.

The Ohioans will see cow-calf operations and yearling setups on Oklahoma ranches. Warner reports. They will travel to Oklahoma by train, then transfer to chartered buses which will take them to both east and west areas of that state. The Oklahoma State Cattlemen's Association, the Oklahoma Agricultural Extension Service, and several area and county cattlemen's associations are assisting with plans, Warner says.

Deadline for tour reservations is Aug. 1. Persons interested should submit reservations to Warner or to their county director of the Ohio Cattle Feeders Association.

Angus Field Day
The Ohio Junior Angus Association will sponsor a field day Wednesday, July 17, at 1 p.m. at the Mindale farm near Tallmadge.

The program will consist of a judging contest based on four classes of Angus cattle. Following the judging contest there will be a demonstration on grooming, fitting, and showing of Angus beef cattle.

All 4-H club members, as well as Future Farmers of America members, are urged to attend this field day. Trophies will be awarded to the 4-H Club member and to the F.F.A. member receiving the highest score in the judging contest. There will also be a trophy awarded to the top team in both 4-H and F.F.A., according to Tom Rudebeck, assistant Columbiana County extension agent.

Mixed-Up Poodle

Walks on Hind Legs

ODENSE, Denmark (AP) — Pucki, a year-old poodle, has baffled Danish medical men. He walks only on his hind legs.

"The dog started walking upright when he was three months old," his owner, Carl W. Soelling, told a reporter. "We never trained him to do it."

"When Pucki goes walking it's nearly always on his hind legs. Sometimes he stands upright for more than five minutes, staring at something interesting."

One Danish surgeon has asked permission to take x-rays of Pucki's pelvic region in an attempt to find out why he apes the human stance. Soelling gave his okay, saying, "I am anxiously waiting for the result of this scientific examination."

Hints From Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise: Sewing is my hobby and over the years I have learned some shortcuts.

For years my sewing machine sat in the bedroom and was seldom used because of the trouble and bother of opening it to get ready to sew.

One day I moved all of my sewing equipment to our basement. It has turned out to be the smartest move I ever made. Those who do not have basements could use a laundry room.

The machine stands open and ready for immediate use at all times. The ironing board stands nearby and a ping-pong table is ideal for a pattern layout. Best of all... I no longer have to put anything away when I stop sewing!

As a result I find time almost every day to indulge in my hobby. It is amazing the amount of money saved by home sewing. But it isn't only the money but the boost to our ego is wonderful to find things are done.

MRS. D. J. KNAPP.
You could cover the machine with plastic to keep it dust-free between spurts! ..

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I paint the inside of a silver salt shaker lid with colorless nail polish.

When it is dry I take a pin and reopen the holes from the inside out. It prevents rust and corrosion.

I attach one side of a large snap or gripper to the waistband of my aprons and the other portion of the gripper to the small edge of fingertip towels.

These may be snapped on and off easily and the apron or the towel can be washed separately as they become soiled.

MRS. JOSEPH PATTERSON.

DEAR HELOISE: Did you know that you can freeze meat slices on a cookie sheet and then place them in a plastic will not stick together?

It works just like hamburger patties.

I froze sliced cooked ham, and roast beef this way, and also raw separated bacon slices! No sticking at all.

SALLY HAYNES.

DEAR HELOISE: When I use food coloring in the large bottles my fingers always get stained, and the color is hard to remove.

I solve this by pouring the coloring into bottles that my baby's sample vitamins came in.

These little bottles have an eye dropper and work wonderfully for up with your food coloring, then use the dropper to measure.

A word from THERON at the Country Store

I have a family who visits our store every week from Beaver Falls, Pa. Almost every time they come they bring a friend.

Today they brought a lady who was very much impressed with our unusual store. She said, "It's a crime the whole country couldn't be run like your store is."

We try to treat our customers right, naturally we don't make as good of an impression on every one as we did on her.

I have one couple who comes from Sewickley, Pa. about every two weeks. He is 84 years old and as spry as a kid. He teaches fencing and is a limited practice doctor. They like our meat so well.

Children's Festival Aids 'MD' Campaign

A group of enterprising children from W. 14th St. did their part to aid in the muscular dystrophy fund drive when they produced a block party penny carnival Tuesday in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miles of 222 W. 14th St.

Working on the project were Michael and Christine Miles, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miles, Deneane and Christine Ellyson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ellyson; Garry Roof, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Roof; and Corrine Carlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Carlton, supervised by Mr. and Mrs. Miles.

Weather Outlook

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Skies cleared over Ohio Wednesday night after a few scattered afternoon showers deposited traces of rain at Columbus and Akron and .05 of an inch at Piquette.

By this morning, temperatures were at record-breaking low levels for the third straight day. Cleveland reported 50 degrees, a record low for the date. At Columbus a low of 50 tied the record. At sunrise today, skies were mostly clear over the state but heavy fog reduced the visibility to near zero at Marietta and Bellaire.

An extensive high pressure area will continue to dominate Ohio through Friday, but temperatures will be slightly warmer. Afternoon cloudiness will form again today, but skies should clear tonight.

No significant rainfall is expected through Friday.

Cuban Agents

Are Flown to

Other Nations

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., says he's not at all surprised by a State Department report that 15 to 20 potential subversive agents have flown recently from Cuba to other Caribbean lands.

"It's been going on for some time," Tower said today in an interview. "I have consistently said that Cuba is a staging area, a training ground for saboteurs, guerrillas and propagandists."

Another critic of U.S. policy toward the Cuban regime of Fidel Castro, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, said the report was "further evidence of the step-up in the export of terrorism from Cuba to other Latin-American countries."

The New York Republican expressed his view Wednesday night in an interview in Rochester, N.Y.

Some newspapers as well as congressional critics have been charging that Cuba was exporting subversion.

Richard I. Phillips, State Department press officer, said Wednesday that the 15 to 20 persons — presumably Cuban — left Cuba by way of Grand Cayman Island — a British island off Cuba.

He said this has been drawn to the attention of the British. A foreign office spokesman said in London Wednesday night that the matter is being carefully considered by responsible British officials.

Phillips statement came after Rep. William C. Cramer, R-Fla., quoted a Miami news reporter as saying that Soviet-made planes had discharged passengers on Grand Cayman Island.

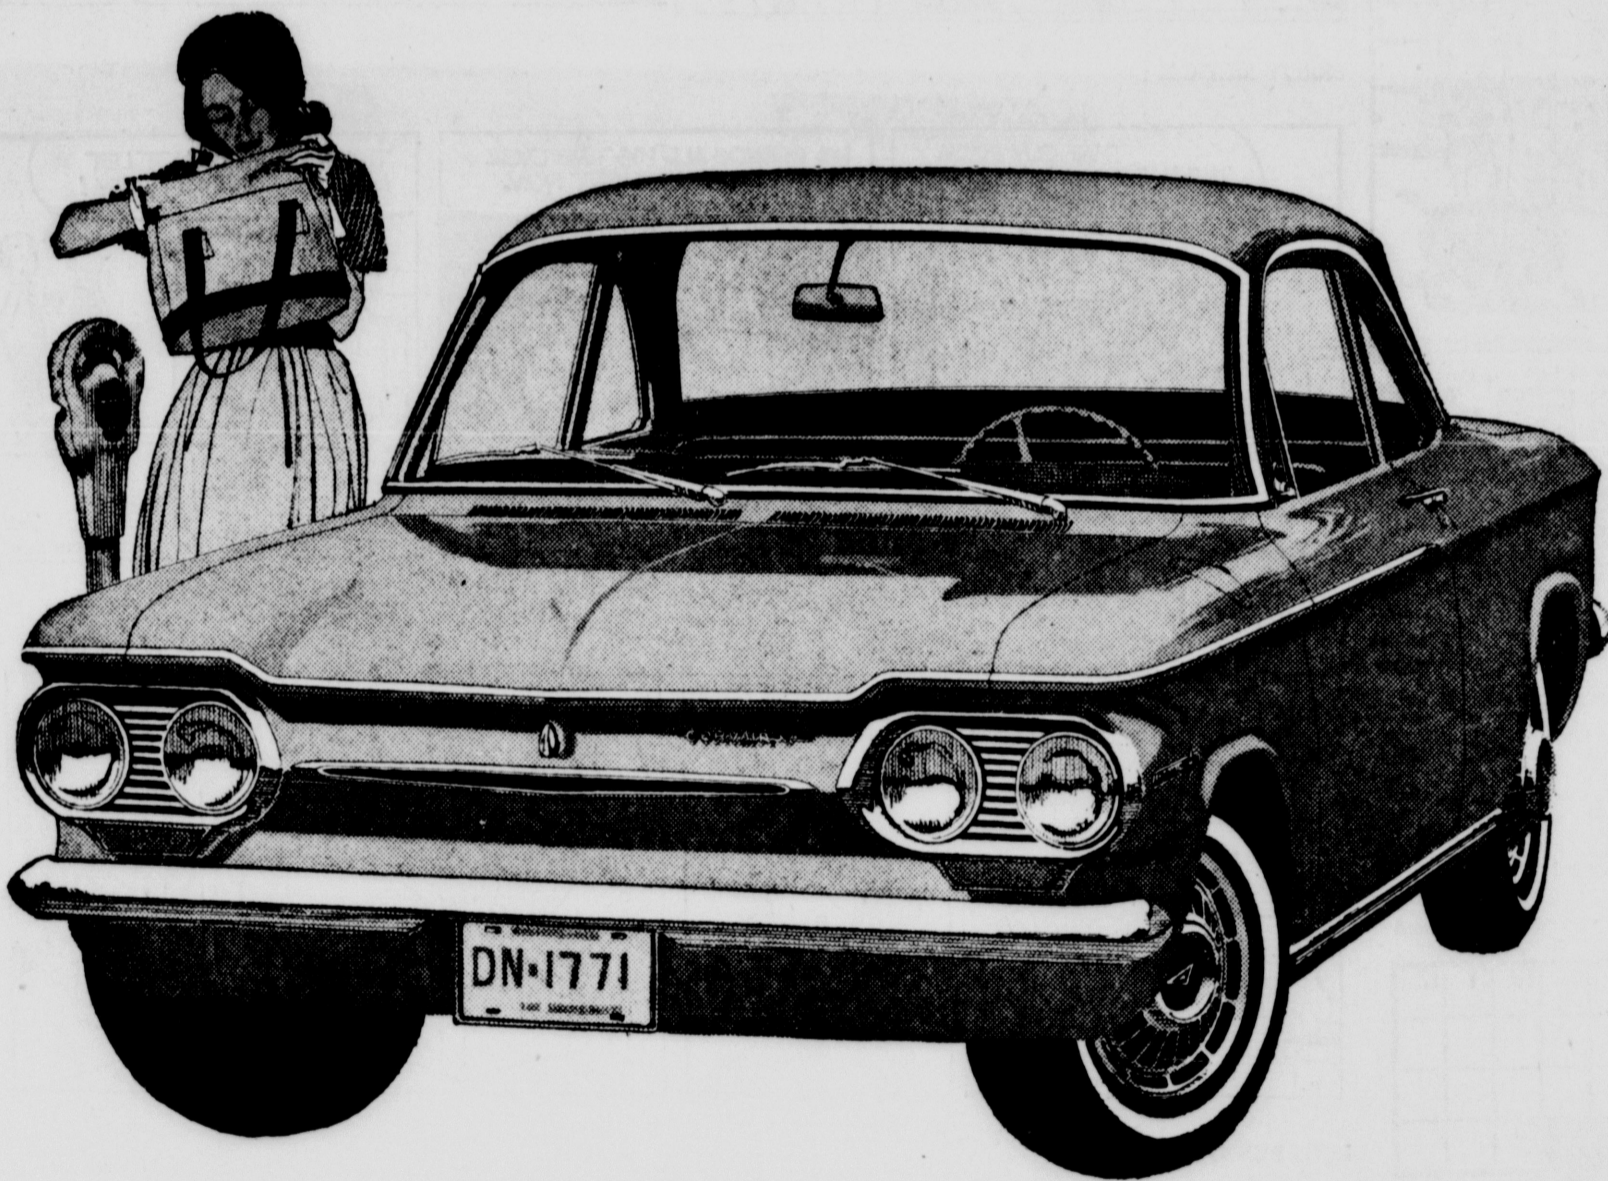

Phillips said the planes that landed on the island were three Soviet-made Ilyushin airliners. He said the 15 to 20 "potential subversive agents" transferred to non-Cuban commercial flights for other points in the Caribbean area including San Jose, Costa Rica.

Corvair 700 Club Coupe

The hardest part about parking a Corvair is finding a nickel

That may be a slight overstatement, but such jauntiness comes easily when you're a Corvair owner.

And you can usually back it up—as easily as you can back up a Corvair. You'll find yourself doing that occasionally, if only to adjust the brakes—they're self-adjusting. That's all there is to it, and that's a good example of how delightfully easy Corvair is to own, drive and maintain.

But since we began by talking about driving, let's stick with that awhile. A large factor in the fun of driving a Corvair is the location of its engine in the rear. Why the rear? It gives Corvair extra traction on any road surface. It provides a nearly flat floor for more useable interior space. Best of all, it produces steering so light, so responsive, you wonder why no other American-made car thought of it.

Corvair's engine is also air cooled, we might add, which means there's no antifreeze or water for you to add. Ever.

All that pleasure from something so practical almost makes you think Corvair is unique among American cars. Which isn't surprising, because it is!
